

Report to the Community

With a watchful eye on the pandemic the library was able to return to on site programs while continuing to offer a variety of online programs. Both have been successful and the support of the community is much appreciated. Work continues on upgrading the building's HVAC system. Other areas of the building will be addressed in order to maintain a safe and welcoming environment. During this past year we welcomed Michael Shanahan who accepted appointment as a Library Trustee.

Board of Trustees
January 26, 2022